

Southern California 2007 Super Lawyer

Practice Areas:

- Business Litigation
- Elder Law
- Securities & Corporate Finance

James Daily is highly regarded in both the institutional and private equity financial industries for proven expertise and ability to initiate and implement sophisticated structured equity and debt transactions through private placements and offerings. This solid reputation as a preeminent authority in this growing field has allowed Mr. Daily to establish his firm as one of the few internationally recognized California law firms to provide comprehensive and reliable Trustee and Escrow services to the Life Insurance Settlement Industry, and for ABS and CDO structured financing transactions. Known too for his assertive litigation expertise, Mr. Daily brings two things that are hard to find in most lawyers: responsiveness and creativity.
